

Report on RGS Swadeshi Movement

Date: 1st October 2024

Day: Tuesday.

Time: 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM

On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, an exhibition titled "Made in India Goods" was organized at RGS in the school auditorium on Tuesday. The event was conducted by students from grades 6, 7, and 8 and was held to honor the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi by promoting the use of indigenous products.

Exhibition Highlights

The exhibition featured a wide array of Indian-made products, which included:

Handicrafts: Traditional crafts representing India's rich cultural heritage.

Beverages: A display of locally produced drinks.

Clothing: Indian-made clothes showcasing traditional and modern designs.

Cosmetics & Skincare: A range of organic and Ayurvedic products promoting natural beauty care

Purpose and Theme

In the spirit of Mahatma Gandhi's Swadeshi Movement, the event emphasized the importance of supporting locally produced goods. It encouraged students to embrace the ideals of self-reliance and patriotism through the promotion of "Made in India" products. The exhibition also highlighted the significance of Atmanirbhar Bharat (Self-reliant India), fostering an understanding of the importance of domestic industries.

Audience Engagement

The exhibition was primarily aimed at the primary students, allowing them to explore and learn about India's industrial growth and the principles of self-dependence. Through this event, younger students were inspired to understand and appreciate the value of Swadeshi and its impact on the nation's economy.

Conclusion

The event was well-received by students and staff alike. It successfully imparted knowledge on the importance of promoting local industries and kindled a sense of pride in Indian-made products. The exhibition was praised for its thoughtful and educational content, making it a memorable and insightful experience for all attendees.
